Information Technology & Systems

IT & Systems continues to provide maximum uptime of the IT infrastructure through improved systems and processes. For ensuring the best IT practices, implementation of right tools and technologies in IT are put in place in line with the management objectives. The Hospital Management system (HMS) is fully stable and operational and the Electronic Medical Record implementation is nearing completion in all clinical processes. There are already requests from some ophthalmic institutions for our implementing the HMS/EMR system for them. The work is underway to build this model and make it available at affordable costs to the participating institutions.

Major Accomplishments

Sankara Nethralaya was one of the 3 nominees for finalists in the “Best IT-User” in Healthcare for the Year 2009 by Nasscom-CNBC. This was after a detailed scrutiny done by Nielson.

Hospital Management System-HMS

HMS usage is continuously monitored along with the End-users for constant improvements both for functionality and user friendliness. Time office application implementation is fully operational and has reduced considerable manual work in Leave Attendance System. On the Reports Side, all ad hoc reports were generated on request basis and also routine reports have been identified and included as part of the application. Integration of the laboratory equipments is completed. Also a new system has been developed for Consultant Appraisal Process. This is under implementation.

Electronic Medical Records: EMR

The implementation of OP Module of EMR was constantly monitored for improvements. All OP patient records are electronic. Computer based training modules required for all Optometrists and Ophthalmologists on EMR are being used for internal skill building. IP EMR development is complete and the implementation plans are currently discussed. It is expected that IP EMR will go live before 2010 end. Also a Web hosted SaaS model of EMR is under discussions for joint development and marketing along with TCS. This will take a clear shape in the financial year 2010-2011.

IT&S Infrastructure

Very detailed planning has been done for the upgradation of IT infrastructure. Towards this, various technology options were studied and analysed. Bench marks and pilots were conducted for the emerging technology options. Finally the roadmap was arrived at to implement Server Consolidation, Unified Storage and VMware. The procurement process got initiated in March 2010. The implementation will happen after delivery from May 2010 onwards.

Cost reduction in outsourcing

The internal IT Team is fully conversant with the HMS/EMR modules and many of the change requests and enhancements are managed by this team, in addition to handling the maintenance support in totality. This has substantially improved the quality of support. So far the team has completed several hundred change requests and developed/ refined a few critical modules of HMS and EMR." The Application support and maintenance has been fully taken over by the in-house team from January 2010 by relieving the complete TCS team. This resulted in a considerable cost reduction in terms of cash outflow.

Corneal Transplant services

Total No. of Eyes Collected: 1230

Total No. of Corneal Transplant surgeries performed: 627

During the year 90 free corneal transplant surgeries sponsored by the Reliance Group of companies in the memory of Late Sri Dhirubai Ambani for deserving cases through the National Association for the Blind, Mumbai and payment received Rs. 3,80,000 (received payment for Till January 2010 for 76 patients)

CONCLUSION

The year under report and the subsequent five months from March to August 2010 reconfirm the status of the foundation as a leading Ophthalmic centre in our country. While the institution's growth, in terms of financial numbers, is quite appreciable, that we continue to take care of poor patients in a substantial manner is a matter for great satisfaction and pride. The statistics for these have already been reported in the earlier sections. All our vital spheres of activity eye care delivery of highest standard, community services, teaching & training, and research, for which the visionary Dr.S.S. Badrinath founded this Institution, have climbed greater peaks.

In Eye care delivery our institution continues to be the most sought after tertiary centre. The anterior segment sector continues to have a negative growth due to competition from new clinics that have sprung up in various suburbs of the city. The attrition rate among ophthalmologists in the Associate Consultant grade is continuing. These cadres are being attracted by the new entrant clinics offering a much higher remuneration than ours. The war of price for the consultants will only result in higher charges for the patients which is not a desirable method of health care delivery. However, the general perception among patients in the city is that Sankara Nethralaya's standards are much better.

In Teaching and Training, the newly launched SN Academy has made very good progress. I expect this development to not only grow, similar to the Founder's concept of Eye Care delivery, but also to support the Foundation financially.

On the Research front, two more patents have been granted to the sister organization, Vision Research Foundation (VRF). It is expected that these two patents may in the long run prove to be income-generating developments making VRF fairly independent of MRF.

The founder Dr. S. S. Badrinath and his wife Dr. Vasanthi Badrinath, with their total involvement in the minute-to-minute progress of the foundation, are the real force behind the institution. While it is a natural phenomenon, the fact that both are now feeling the pinch of old age cannot be ignored. The Board and other members of the Foundation must take some expedient steps to develop proper succession plans which the Founder himself can, in his own style, articulate and ensure a smooth transition without sacrificing the philosophy with which this Foundation was dedicated to the people of our country.

Vice Chairman Dr T.S. Surendran who has been with Dr. Badrinath practically from day one of the starting of the institution is a great asset. He continues to maintain vital relationship with appropriate persons to solve important issues.

Dr. Lingam Gopal, an eminent retinal surgeon and past Chairman of Sankara Nethralaya continues with his dedicated service and remains an integral part of the institution. His leadership was once again evident when he set up the NABH standards for our Hospital.

Dr. Prema Padmanabhan, senior most Medical Director, is known all over the country for her skill in surgery. Her calm approach to any situation is a great boon to the institution. Dr. S. Bhaskaran, Dr. L.Vijaya, Dr. Tarun Sharma are not mere consultants. They are the pillars of this institution. Dr. H.N. Madhavan, who heads the VRF, is the brain behind the two patents VRF received last year. VRF and MRF are fortunate to have such a great scientist in its fold.

Dr. Pramodh Bhende, Dr. J. Biswas and other senior consultants in the Executive committee, Dr. Krishna Kumar of ESO, Dr. K. S. Vasani our MD, P.R. Ravindran the Chief General Manager, Ms. Akila Ganesan, the General Manager, Col. Raghavan are all the real persons behind the smooth running of the Foundation.

Our entire para medical and administrative staffs serve as an important link between the patients and the institution. But for them, the system will collapse. Regular training classes are being held to some of these groups. Shri M.S. Jayaraman the management guru is a rare personality whose only interest in training these cadres is to make SN a better organization.

I record with gratitude the support of the dedicated Board of Management who have ignored their own inconveniences and have always come forward to advise the institution even at very short notices.

Our auditors, since the starting of this institution, M/s S. Viswanathan & co. are carrying out their assignment as a service to a not-for-profit organisation without receiving the true compensation for the volume of work done. I record with appreciation the personal involvement of the partners Mr. C. N. Ramachandran and Mr. Chella Srinivasan. The internal auditors Mr. S. A. Bhatt are also very dedicated in their service to us. I thank them for their personal involvement in our case.

SWAN the women auxiliary wing of our organization celebrated 25 years of service to Sankara Nethralaya during the year. Their contributions to the welfare of indigent patients treated at Nethralaya have increased considerably. I salute these dedicated ladies guided by Ms. Surekha ben and Mrs. Appukutty, Mrs. Haridas and many more.

Our bankers, HDFC and SBI, are very considerate in taking up our requests and delivering their service very promptly to us. I thank them for their support.

Lions club collaborate with us in a continuous manner on various sight-related projects. Lions international recognizes our dedicated service to the poor in a very satisfactory manner. Lion M. V. Raghunathan himself a very great donor, Lion G. V. Raman a great motivator, the ever present Mr. S. N. Hari Narayanan are all part of us. I thank them on behalf of our entire organisation for their help in taking care of our indigent patients. Mission for vision Trust, Shridi Sai Trust, Singhvi Trust are all helping with more and more funds supporting the free services rendered by us.

I thank all these personalities and their predecessors for supporting me personally all these 30 years of my small contribution to the enormous human effort of Sankara Nethralaya. My association with this institution has definitely benefited me more than the institution by my association. Time has now come to usher in a change for the better.

I wish my successors the very best with the ever lasting blessings of His Holiness the Paramacharya of Kanchi Kamakoti Peetam who with his divine prophecy found an unique human being in Dr. Badrinath to establish and successfully run a unique organization known world-over as Sankara Nethralaya.
