“From the Alumni - To the Almamater”
- An alumni series

Elite School of Optometry is initiating an exclusive academic series with support from its alumni. Named as “From the Alumni – To the Almamater”, experts from different optometric fields would present on their area of interest to students.

The sessions began from December 2020. This is the sixth session of ESO’s Alumni Series. Open to UG, PG, PhD students, faculty and optometrists.

Date: 27.02.2021, between 7.30 pm to 8.30 pm
Title: “Optometry Informatics”.
Key Resource Person: Dr. Sajeesh Kumar [ESO Alumna BO 3]

Dr Sajeesh Kumar is currently working as a Professor, University of Tennessee, USA. His research focuses on design and development of telemedicine technology, public health informatics, health outcomes and policy. He has travelled to more than 30 countries and has extensive international experience in healthcare, education and research works. Dr. Kumar has been involved in telemedicine activities in USA, Australia, Singapore, Netherlands, Seychelles, United Arab Emirates and India. He edited several books on telemedicine and published scientific papers in high impact journals such as Lancet, Nature. He completed his Bachelor of Science in Optometry with Elite School of Optometry- Sankara Nethralaya, Chennai, India in 1991. He has received several research awards, excellence in teaching awards in his career. Especially he was honoured with Young Inventor Award, Matilda Award for Cultural Excellence and the prestigious Premier’s Australia Day Award for Active Civilian.

ESO is proud of Dr Sajeesh Kumar and thank him for support to the Alma mater!